Special Railroad Rates to the Norwich Fair.

Of interest to all people in Eastern Connecticut is the news that the United States Railroad Administration has granted special railroad rates to all persons attending the New Loncon County Fair at Norwich on September 1, 3 and 4. Secretary Gilbert S. Raymond has been notified that one and one-half fares instead of two single fares will be charged for the round trip from Stafford Springs, Saybrook Putnam and Westerly and all intermediate stations. Such tick-ets are good going to Norwich from September 1st to September 4th and refurning are good if the holder reaches his original starting point not later than September 5th. After the government has shown its interest in the fair by granting these reduced rates there should be a large number to take advantage of the opportunity to visit Norwich and its annual thre

Laugh and the world laughs wit This is a saying old as the hills ut it is applicable to A Nine o'Clock starring Charles Ray, which is to be drama of unusual merit and is said to be one of the finest turned out by the Thomas H. Ince producing staff in many months.

The story deals with a young man the son of a merchant in an city. He has advanced ideas regarding the management of the "Emporium" which do not meet with the approval of his father and the regult is a disagreement. The young man goes to New York meets with sundry adventures and loses his positten just as his father wires him to come home and look after the store. He readily compiles with this command and the "Emporium" is transfermed. There is comedy in every foot of the picture—comedy that will make you acream with laughter and there. thrill with anticipation as each new scene is unfolded on the screen. The other feature is William Desmond in Hell's End, a five-part Tribangle distinct that everyone will enloy and the latest Current Events with news "Over liere and Over There."

MY FRIEND THE PUP.

When I come in the house at night.
You'd think sae'd have a fit.
She dashes up and begs so hard
To notice her a bit;
She ducks her head and wags her tal
And humps her back and squeals
And dances round and jumps stroice.
